

Minutes of the GSU Assembly
Meeting of 26 February 1992

Representatives attending: 25

Chair: Tony Monsanto

1) Economic Affairs

- Ben Alpers, the chair of the Economic Affairs committee, declared the committee moribund. The duties of the Economic Affairs committee are now the responsibilities of the Campus Life committee.

2) Academic Affairs

- Angela Borchert set forth her plans for the work of the Academic Affairs committee. These included presenting a draft of a proposed survey for the graduate students.

3) Elections

- Tony Monsanto was reelected for another term as chair of the GSU. Likewise, Fritz was reelected for the position of treasurer, and Jay Lieske for the position of representative secretary. Stuart McCook resigned as Assembly Secretary, but no permanent replacement was found.

4) Funding Requests

- The students in history of science were given a grant of $150 by the GSU to support the eleventh annual Graduate Student Conference in the History, Philosophy, and Sociology of Science, Technology, and Medicine, which was held March 7th, at Princeton.

- The house committee of the Holiday Inn, represented by Matt Grayson, was given a grant of $450 to help defray the costs of the Grad Student valentine's Day Party held there. the momentum is lost.

5) Budget

- There was a resolution for the assembly to accept the budget as proposed by the treasurer, Fritz. The resolution was passed.

6) ROTC at Princeton

- The assembly passed the following resolution concerning ROTC activities on campus:

Whereas Princeton University has an equal opportunity policy prohibiting discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation,
Whereas ROTC does discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation,
Whereas the University provides ROTC with substantial amounts of support (both financial and indirect),

Be it therefore resolved that the University should stop providing such support until such time as the ROTC ceases to discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation.

7) The Alcove Pub

- Deana Smythe reported that she was organizing a GSU open mike night at the Alcove pub for the evening of March 7th. She also described some of the current and future plans of the pub. Currently, Wednesday nights are grad student nights, which gets them a 50 cent reduction on beer prices. More parties and activities such as jazz nights are also planned.
